From the South—Cuban Affairs via New-Orleans.

BALTIMORE, Wednesday, Aug. 13, 1851.

The Southern mail has arrived.

The N. O. Picayune is filled with Cuba news by the Cherokee, nothing later than by the Georgia at New-York. Private letters say that Paulino, Mantua, and Galafe, have really proclaimed. The Patriots had returned to Havana six miles from Havana, and killed some of the picked guard of Madrid.

Several towns were to pronounce on the 3d of August, the day after the Cherokees left.

The Whigs of the IVth District of Louisiana have nominated John Moore for Congress, and passed resolutions in favor of the Compromise.

Arrest of the Sullivan County Bank Counterfeitors.

ALBION, Michigan, Tuesday, Aug. 12, 1851.

The Sullivan County Bank counterfeiters were arrested at this place yesterday.

They succeeded in passing a large amount of their worthless trash along the line of the Railroad.

Items from Pittsburg.

PITTSBURGH, Wednesday, Aug. 13, 1851.

The Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad is doing a good business. The receipts of the past week were $1,100. A portion of the rail, near Brighton, was designedly pulled up yesterday, which threw the locomotive over a deep bank. Fortunately, however, no persons were seriously injured.

The river has four feet water in the channel, and is falling.

Stage Accident.

ALBANY, Wednesday, Aug. 13, 1851.

While the Troy stage was attempting to get on board the ferry boat for the Albany road, at 7 P. M., it got overboard with thirteen passengers inside. Both horses were drowned. All the passengers very narrowly escaped.

The Cotton Crop.

NEW YORK, Wednesday, August 13, 1851.

In the dispute dated New-Orleans, 7th inst., the receipts of new cotton should have been 6 instead of 600 bales.

Safety of Mrs. Judson U. S. Ship Preble Aground, &c.

BOSTON, Wednesday, Aug. 13, 1851.

Letters have been received here, stating that Mrs. Judson, for whose safety fears had been entertained, was at Cape Town in good health on the 26th of May, to sail for England.

The Preble was at anchor off the south side of Nantucket on the 8th instant, firing guns, having struck on the south shore during a thick fog. A pilot was boarded her and extricated her from her dangerous position without damage. The Preble is bound to the Coast of Africa.

We had a severe hail-storm here this afternoon. The stones in some places were nearly an inch long, and did considerable damage to glass, &c., and probably to the fruit and crops.

The Nova-Scotia Herring Fisheries—Interest from the West-Indies, via Halifax, &c.

BOSTON, Wednesday, Aug. 13, 1851.

Halifax papers of the 11th inst., received here, state that the herring fishery on the coast of Nova-Scotia has been an entire failure.

Late advices from the West-Indies, via Bermuda, August 2d, had been received at Halifax.
